

Biography of Katherine A Foster

Katherine is the lead author the UNCDF-UNDP Dialogue on Global Digital Finance Governance Theme 1 Technical Papers on Digital Currencies and BigFintech Impacts on Sustainable Development. She is also the Community Director of Open Earth Foundation and the Social Alpha Foundation Fellow 2021. A former Diplomat specializing in climate and human security, Katherine has been spearheading innovation at the nexus of technology, policy, climate, and sustainable development for over 25 years. She has held leadership roles at the Green Digital Finance Alliance (UNEP – Ant Financial NGO) including as knowledge partner for UN Secretary General Task Force on Digital Finance for the SDGs, and at the EU Climate-KIC (Europe's largest public-private innovation partnership and accelerator focused on climate innovation) and FIDES Microfinance. Katherine serves on ESMA and BIS working groups and as an advisor to global impact innovation initiatives and accelerators including as MIT Solve Fellow 2018. A Swiss-Canadian (Métis), Katherine and holds degrees in geography from McGill, Western and the University of Edinburgh.

LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/katherinefoster/

Twitter: @foster_change

Email: katherine@openearth.org