

Biography of Papa N'Diaye

Regional Studies Division Chief, African Department

Mr. N'Diaye heads the Regional Studies Division and is the Mission Chief for Botswana in AFR. Prior to this, he was the deputy Division Chief in the Strategy, Policy, and Review Department. He also worked on the China, Japan, and Malaysia desks at the IMF. He studied at Sorbonne University, specializing in macroeconomics and econometrics, and taught macroeconomics to undergraduate students at Dauphine University. Mr. N'Diaye has numerous publications on various topics, including monetary policy, asset prices, macroprudential policies, fiscal policy, and rebalancing growth in China